

Campus Connections

Sr. Kim Thi Vo, MCV, found herself in a whirlwind of bubbles as she walked the parade route during Epworth Town and Country Days in August. The DWC float celebrated the college's diverse community and gave students a chance to engage with this vibrant local tradition.

Sr. Cecilia Fukah Egho, SUSD, shares a warm greeting with a resident at Harmony in Dubuque, while Frt. Cong Nguyen, SVD, looks on. Through their ministry practicum, the students visit the care center, bringing joy to residents by playing games and spending quality time together.

Alejandro Gonzalez Cruz bursts into laughter as he tries to keep the hula hoop in the air! Students joined in a variety of games and activities at the Opening School Picnic, kicking off the year by building community and enjoying some fun before classes began.

An impressive 76 golfers teed off at the 10th annual Divine Word College Benefit Golf Outing at Timberline in Peosta this July, raising more than $11,000 for the Student Scholarship Fund. A heartfelt thank you to everyone who made this event a success!
